

TOP 8

ADVENTURES IN SOUTH AMERICA

1

Explore the Torres del Paine NP (Chile)

One of the wildest places on earth. Iced-over rivers, towering mountain ranges, glaciers, incredible landscapes. Popular trip excursions include hiking, puma tracking, kayaking, canoeing, climbing and horseback riding.

2

Hike the Inca Trail to Machu Picchu (Peru)

One of the most iconic South American adventure trips, passing the Sacred Valley of the Inca, ancient ruins, authentic villages and dense forests. Machu Picchu is reached at the end of the multi-day trek, right at sunrise.

ADVENTURE DESTINATION SOUTH AMERICA

Climbing a volcano (Ecuador)

3

Ecuador is famous for its Avenue of the Volcanoes which offers a vast and impressive scenery unlike any other on earth. Some experience and proper gear is required though to summit the Chimborazo or the Cotopaxi.

Snorkeling in the Galapagos (Ecuador)

6

Expect crystal clear waters and an incredible variety of marine life: white-tip reef sharks, sea lions, the Galapagos penguin, marine iguanas, manta rays, star fish, sea turtle and dozens of species of colorful tropical fish.

Amazon Adventures (Peru, Brazil, Ecuador)

4

An almost surreal journey to the most bio-diverse place on the planet, offering both luxurious adventures or raw jungle power – it's up to you! Activities include kayaking, piranha fishing, wildlife watching & camping.

Whitewater Rafting (Argentina)

7

Argentina has some of the world's best whitewater rafting! The most popular spot is the Mendoza river with its Class III and IV rapids. The wild river adventure here can be enjoyed throughout the year.

Crossing Atacama & Uyuni (Chile, Bolivia)

5

One of the most otherworldly places in South America. Expect clear starry skies, moon-like valleys, brightly coloured lakes teeming with flamingos and the world's largest salt flat. The journey takes several days in a 4x4 vehicle.

Trek to the Lost City (Colombia)

8

The ruins of Ciudad Perdida are as impressive as they are remote – getting there is half the fun. This is a beautiful though challenging trek through thick jungles, steep hills and splendid river valleys of the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

SUSTAINABILITY STATEMENT

With offices in Chile, Peru, Colombia, Brazil, Ecuador, Argentina and Uruguay, we have been creating unique travel experiences throughout South America for over 45 years. We offer an authentic insight into the South American culture and at the same time try to give a better understanding of local traditions and manners. By offering train journeys, trekking tours and social programs we would like to create a stronger awareness for the environment and for acting sustainably. We aim to create journeys that seek not only to enrich the lives of any traveller to South America, but also those of the local communities and our team.

We recognize our responsibility in contributing to a change towards sustainable and fair tourism. The planet we live in is full of natural and cultural treasures and as a DMC we invite people to explore these treasures. It is our responsibility to act sustainably in every way in order to ensure the protection of the local nature and culture, to support the economy of local communities, to create a fair and enjoyable working climate for our team and of course to provide an impeccable and safe travel experience to our clients.
