

KINNIE – MALTA'S OWN FAVOURITE SOFT DRINK

colours of malta

Kinnie is a unique tasting, alcohol-free, refreshing beverage made with orange flavouring and aromatic herbs, which was launched by Farsons in 1952. Its golden amber colour and bitter taste make Kinnie an excellent thirst quencher. It is ideal on its own, particularly with a slice of orange. It also mixes excellently with a number of alcoholic drinks, cocktails and mocktails.

In 1984, due to evolving lifestyle trends a diet version was introduced and now forms an integral part of the Kinnie brand. Kinnie Zest was added to the portfolio in 2007 to target health-conscious, young adults who have an active interest in health and their wellbeing.

In 2014 Kinnie Vita was launched. Naturally sweetened using a blend of sugar and stevia leaf extract, Kinnie vita offers the same great Kinnie taste with only half the sugar and calories of a regular soft drink.
